Who We Were . . . pg. 4

In this section we would like to show the past in a fleeting moment—to take you back to the days of our old identities. In this way, we feel you can better understand our transition into what we have become—a new identity with different viewpoints, hopes and goals than before. Look on this section as a brief and fading light on the past, but only pause a moment—for we have a new identity to share with you.

Who We Are . . . pg. 8

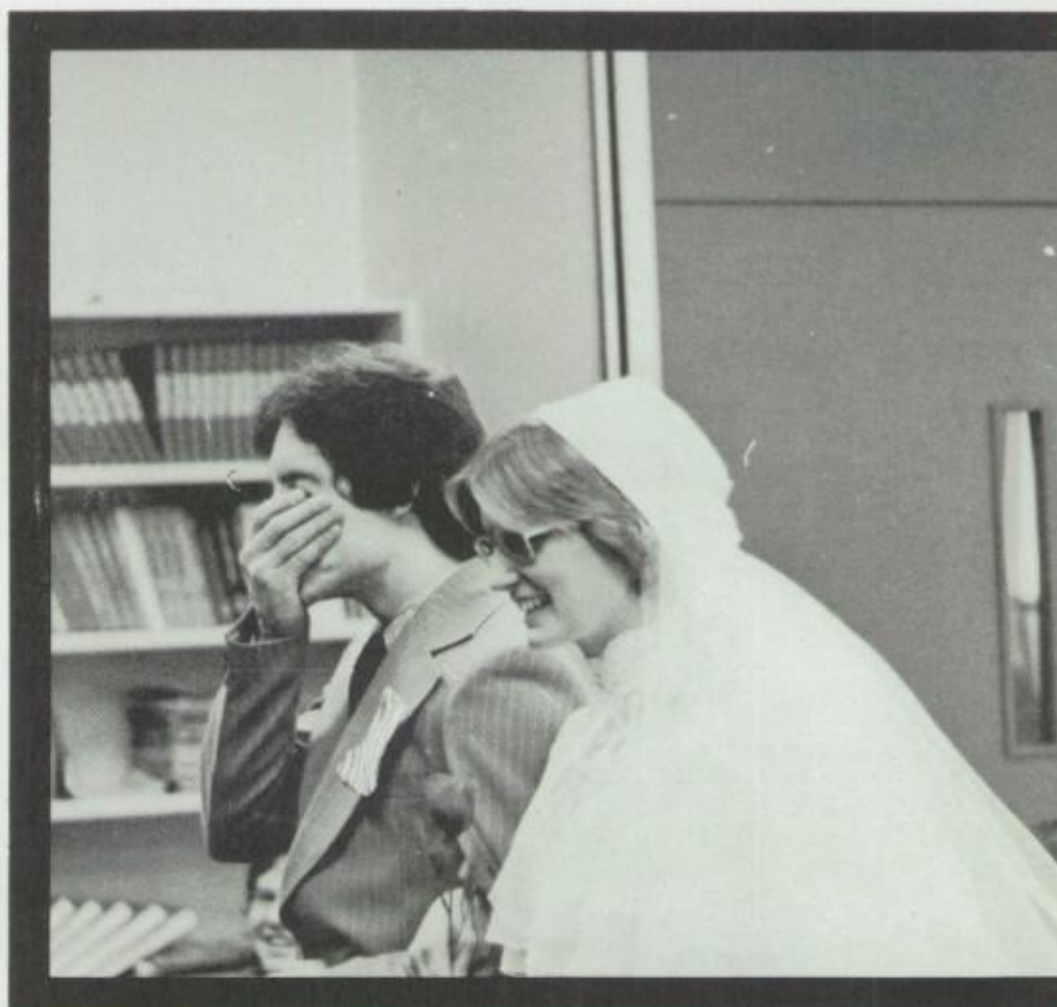

In a short period of time we grew accustomed to one another. We learned to accept our new identities of the South Dearborn High School KNIGHTS. In this part of our written record of the year we show the faces that make up WHO WE ARE—Seniors, who will be the first class to graduate from SDHS, Juniors, Sophomores, and of course, the Freshmen who will be the first class to complete four years at SDHS.

What We Did . . . pg. 56

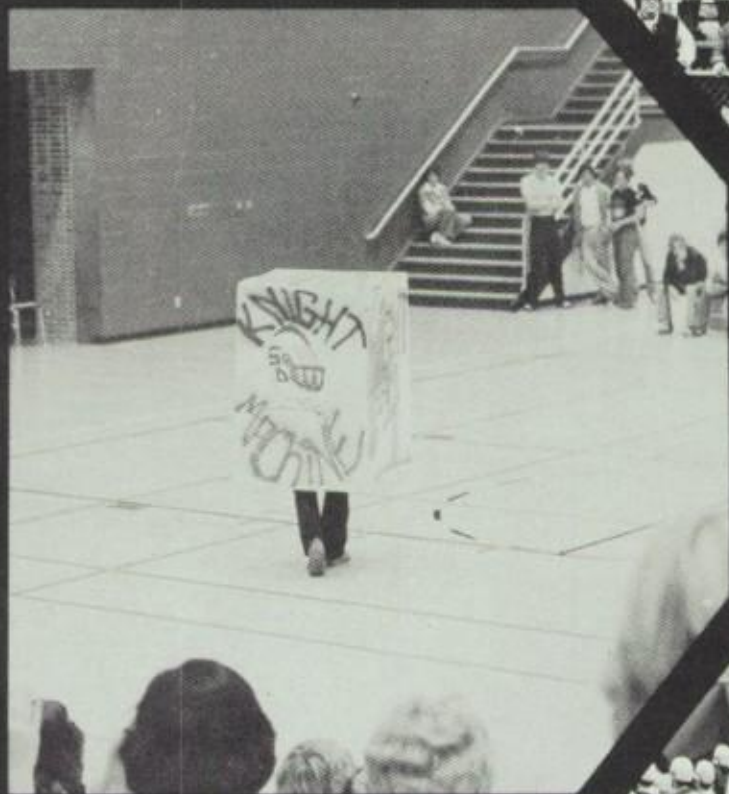

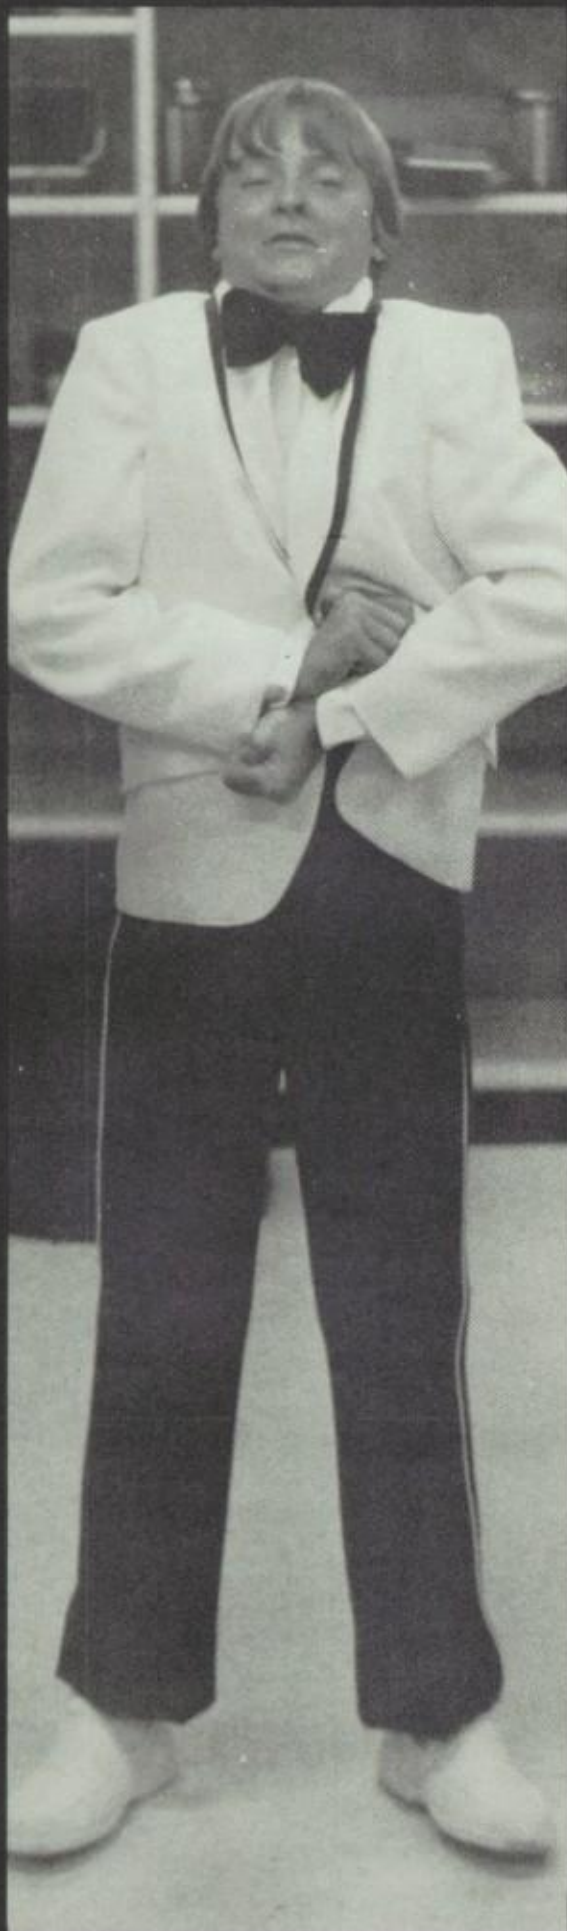

As with all changes, the transition to the new South Dearborn High School has its ups and downs. In this segment of KNIGHT LIFE we include the good and disappointing times in sports, clubs, and classes. As you turn these pages, you will see what activities we were involved in, how we did them, and whether or not we did well enough to win. You will feel the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat.

Who Helped Us . . . pg. 146

In this section we wish to recognize all those people who assisted us through the transition into our New Identities. We would like to acknowledge the administrators who administered, the faculty who taught us and of course, the area merchants, without whose ads, this remembrance of the year could not be published.

IDENTITIES

WHO

Gone, but not forgotten. Those were the good old days—the days of Moores Hill, Aurora, and Dillsboro. Those days will long be remembered not only because of the time we spent within the walls of those schools, or because of the memories we gathered while we were there, but also because those schools helped to mold us into our old identities. They made us ... Who We Were.

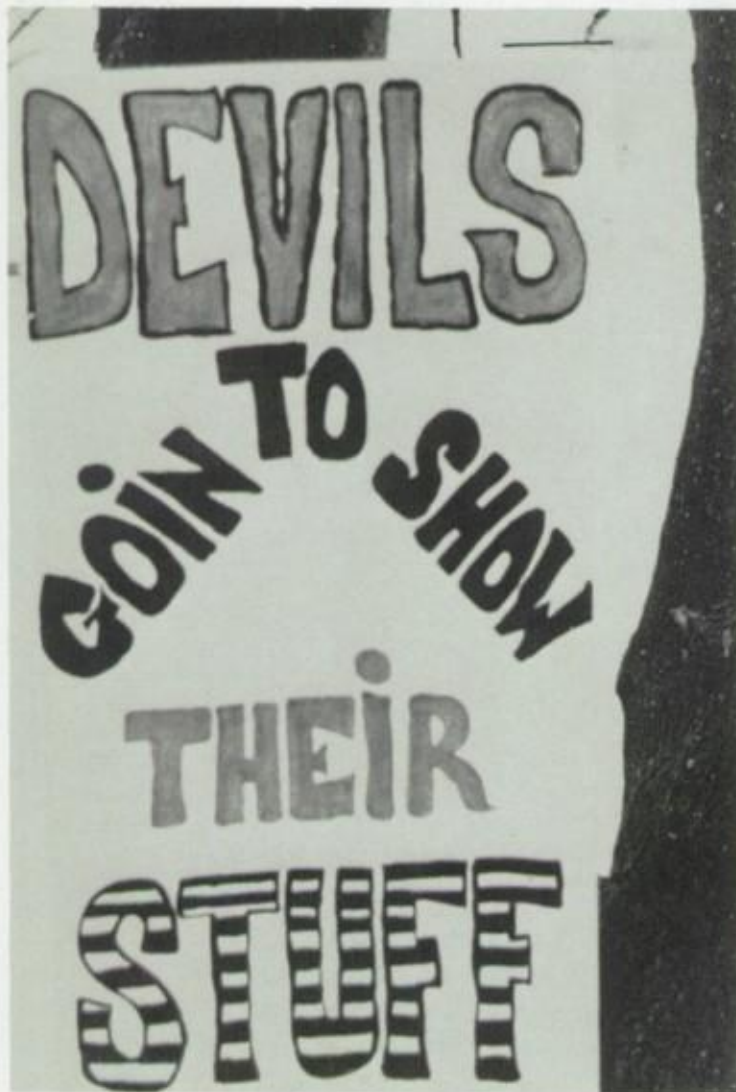

Let us take the time to look back, for one final glance at what was—and what can be no longer. Let us make time stand still—if only for a moment to reminisce ... to remember ... Who We Were.

WE WERE

Gone— But Not Forgotten

WHO

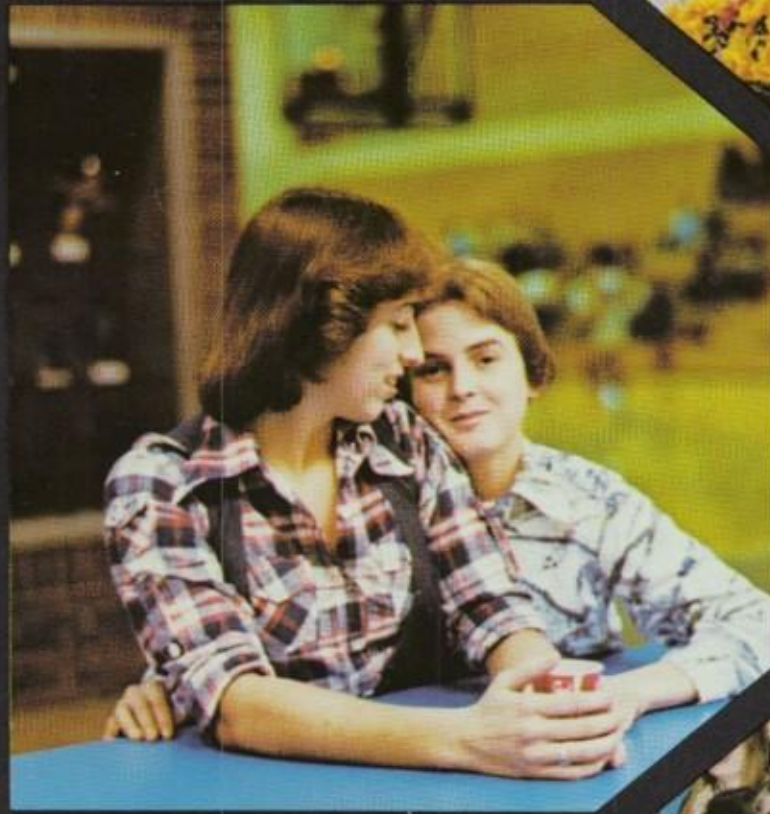

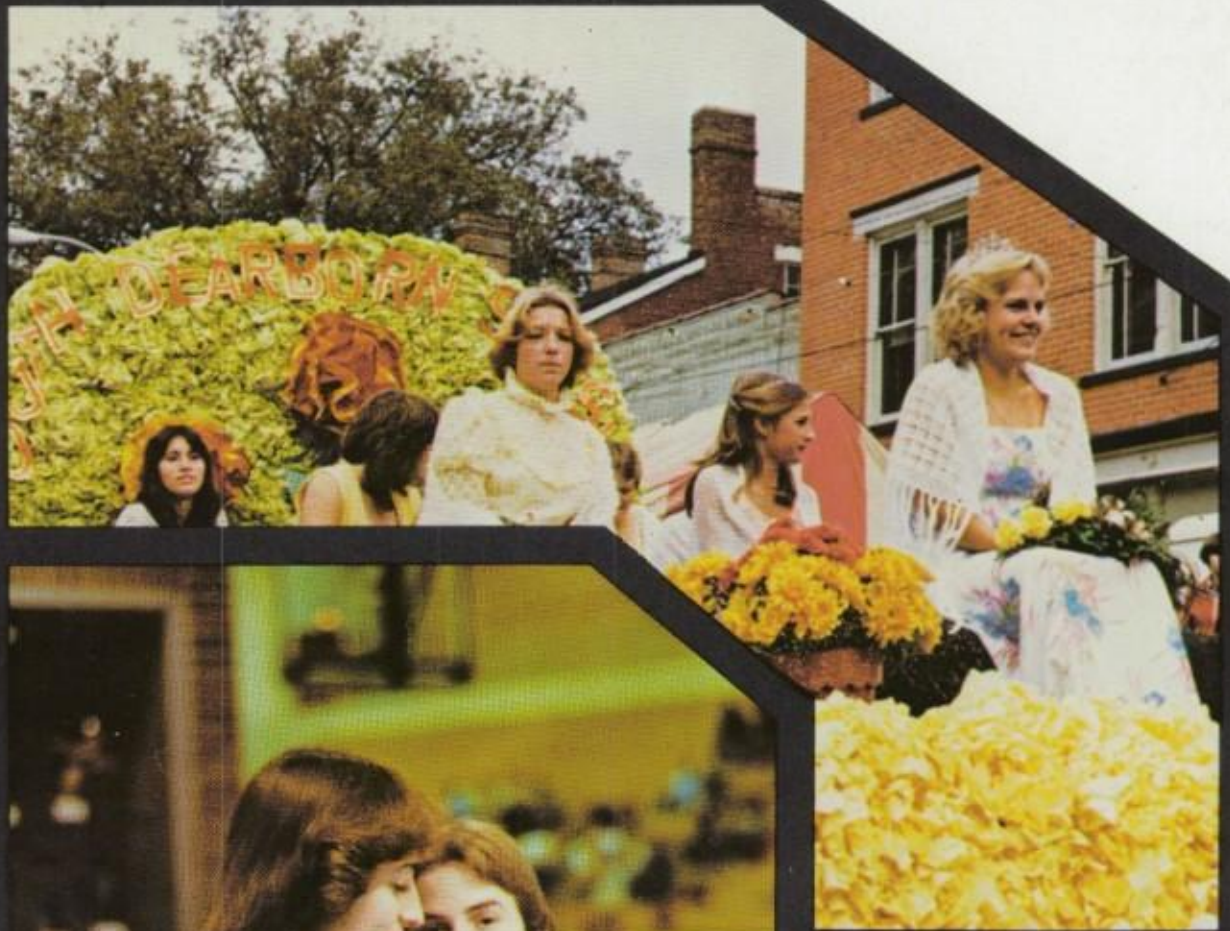

"Good morning and welcome to South Dearborn High School." These were the first words heard over the intercom, Monday, August 28, 1978, by high school students previously enrolled at Aurora, Dillsboro, and Moores Hill High Schools.

As the announcement came over the loudspeaker, people were no longer listening as three separate schools but as an individual group now known as S.D.H.S.

We hope that as you page through this book you can look back on the memories of the 1978-79 school year—the first year for South Dearborn.

WE ARE

“... To go to this school, you must be tough, tough, tough, tough, tough, tough, tough, tough —SHATTERED— Doc on the West-side “Big D” up town What a mess, this school’s in tatters!! We’ve been shattered, our brains are battered, splattered all over South Dearborn.”

Right: Beth Rullman, Come On Down!

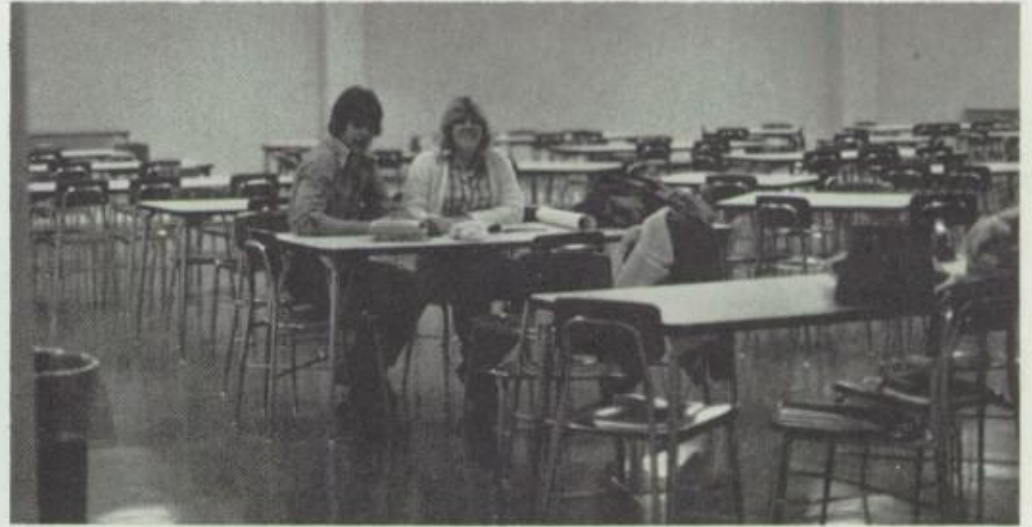

Enthusiasm reigns high at S.D.H.S.

A Day At South Dearborn.

"Tony, what do you mean I only made one assist."

"Not now John, they're taking our picture."

"Just a little higher and we can climb our way out of this prison."

Seniors show their strength in the tug of war at the first S.D.H.S. pep session.

"What does that sign say?"

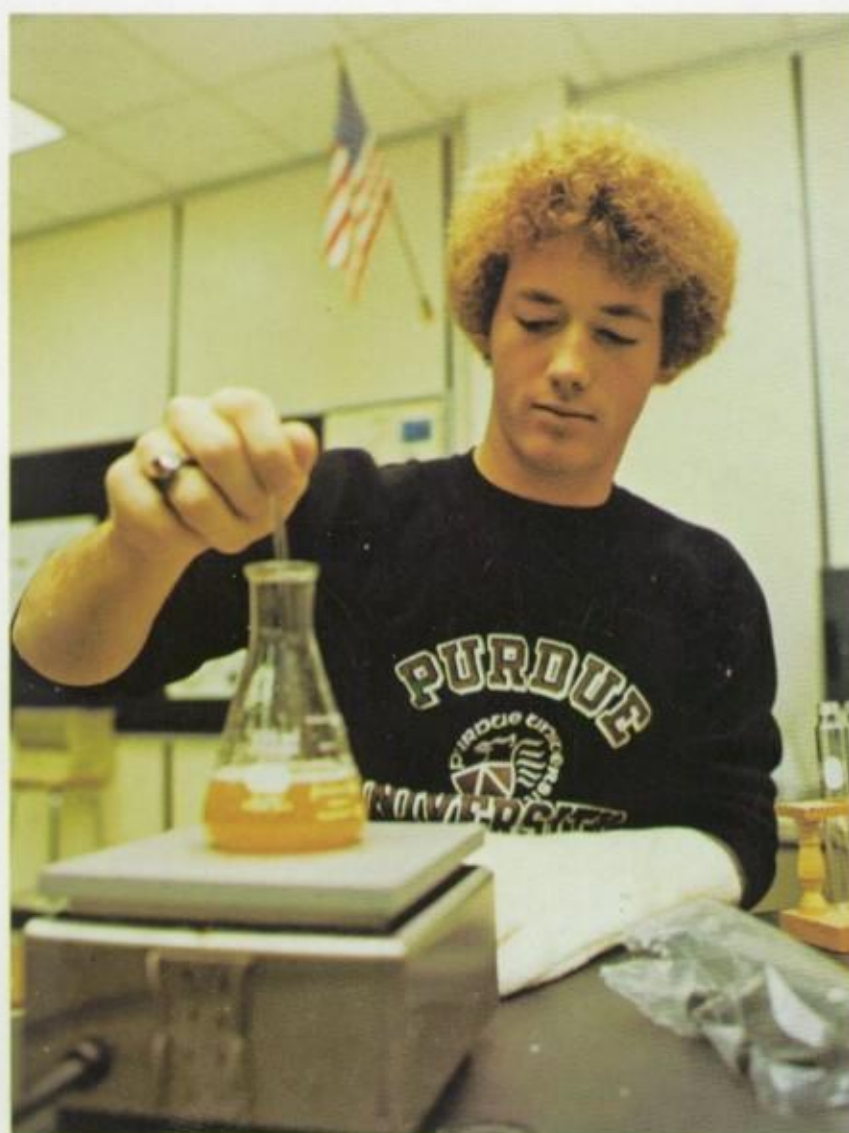

"We Ain't Been Knights For Long,

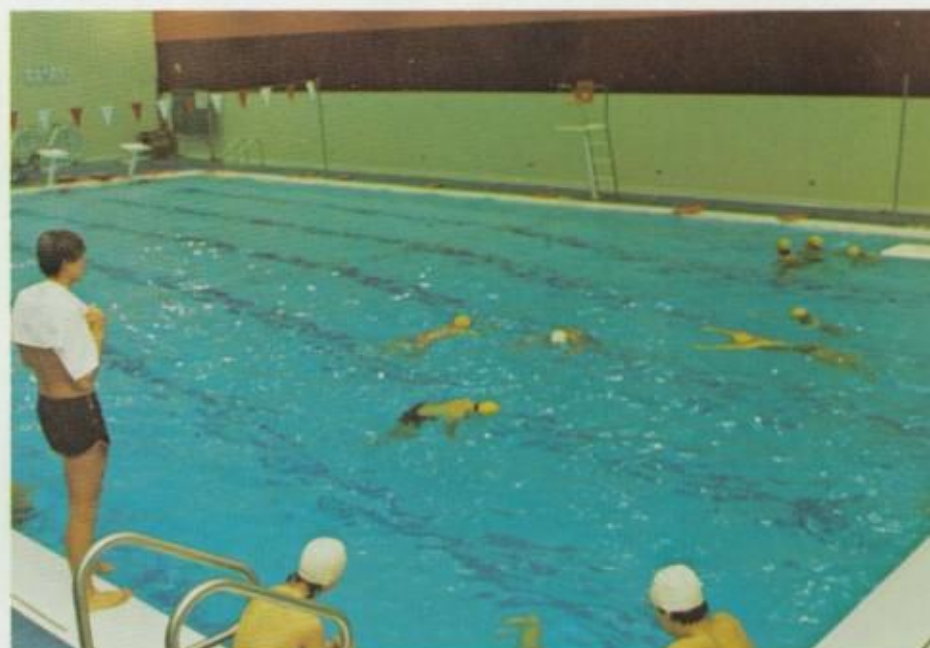

"We're off to see the wizard . . ."

There's nothing worse than a new school with no friends.

Just a little more peroxide and I'll have my exact hair color.

It's a real jewel—the new cool school pool.

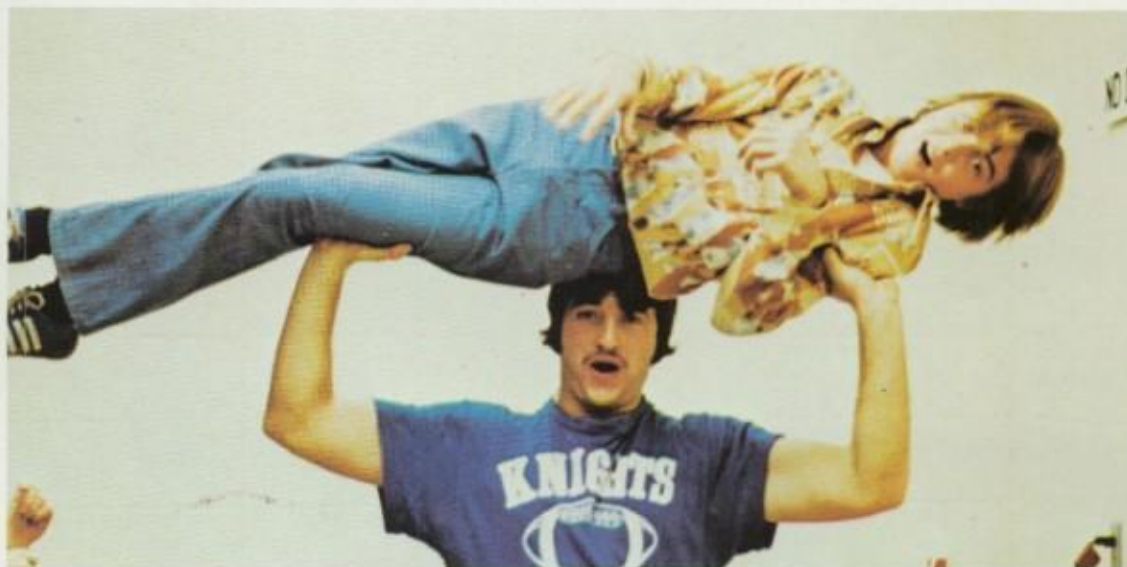

But Boy, Are We Proud ...”

Rootie Toot Toot, Please give us a mute!

Don't laugh Mr. Duerstock, it's your turn next!

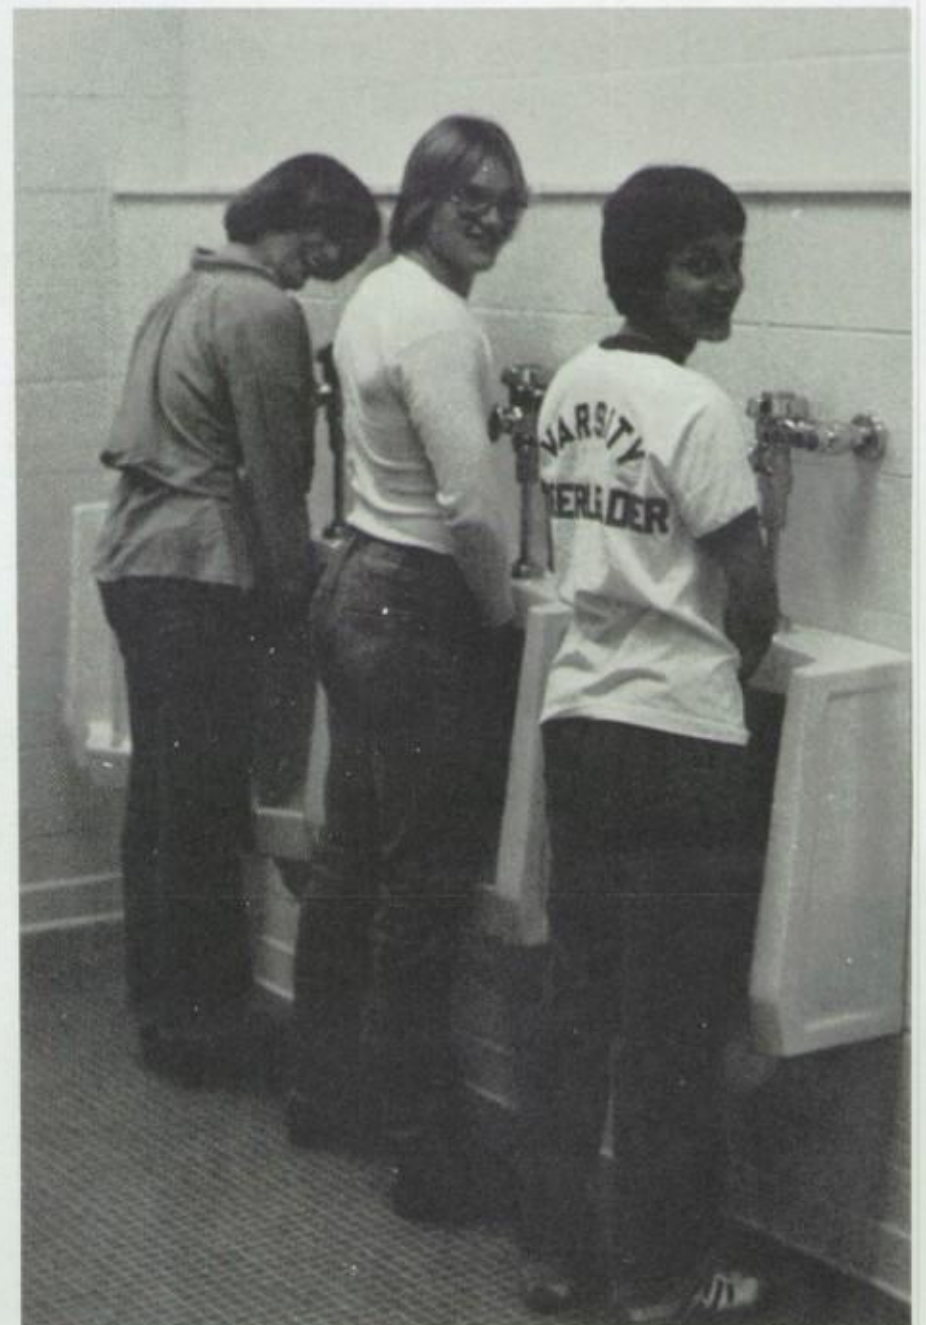

"Wasted Days . . ."

"If you want our bodies and you think we're sexy . . ."

"Now on your left in the next cage you see the world's largest spider."

As Carol smiles, Angie asks, "Hey Tim, am I doing this right?"

Seniors Tammie McClellan, Pam Deamron, and Sue Rowlette show deep emotions as they back our Knights.

A trophy in the hand is worth two in the case.

The First To Leave, Seniors 1979

As Freshmen four years ago, we, the South Dearborn Senior Class of 1979, had no idea that we would one day be friends and graduating classmates of people who at that time were our competitors and rivals.

When we were Sophomores we were slowly "learning the ropes" of our individual high schools, waiting for the time when we would be the Seniors, the reigning class members of the school.

By the time we were Juniors we realized that soon we would be giving up our old identities of Aurora Red Devils, Dillsboro Bulldogs, and Moores Hill Bobcats, but it wasn't until the end of that same year that we began to work together. As students of the three old schools we preferred the name KNIGHTS over Highlanders as our new identity, so we fought together for the first time to reach this initial goal.

It seemed that our vision of South Dearborn in the future was a step closer. It wasn't until we walked through the doors on August 28, 1978, that South Dearborn High School became a part of our lives.

Our Senior year was full of mixed emotions toward the past and the future. As we met with our arch-rivals, the Lawrenceburg Tigers, for the first time we realized we had successfully united as one.

By the middle of our Senior year, we found that our old identities were fading away and our KNIGHT PRIDE was shining through.

Upon graduation it seemed as if our new identity was coming to an end, however, in reality, it was just beginning. We Seniors, being members of the first graduating class, felt throughout the year a responsibility to set examples for the Seniors to come. But we also felt a special pride in being the first; the first to graduate, the first to relive freshmen excitement and fear, and the first to really be touched by the consolidation.

Good Morning Yesterday;

You woke up
And time had flown away
And suddenly you couldn't find The memories you
Remember.

"Get your license plates here," "Come play bingo!" "Buy a milk shake." Our Junior year has now reached us and has brought excitement and hard work with it. Junior class members and their parents turned into salesmen as they peddled their wares to raise funds for the prom. The prom was not only a lot of hard work for the Juniors that helped set up prom decorations, but even more so for the class officers who planned it from the beginning. This year's class officers were as follows: President—Kevin Lothridge, Vice-President—Debbie Havlin, Secretary—Cecelia Jackson, Treasurer—Mark Havlin. "Knights in White Satin" was the theme of this year's prom which was held on Friday, May 4th, in the South Dearborn gym. Juniors transformed the gym into an old English castle, complete with a fire-breathing dragon. The after-prom was held at the Lighthouse Limited in Cincinnati.

Under the leadership of President Greg Ullrich and his assistants—Vice-President Bryan Banschbach, Secretary Julie Stork, Treasurer Jodi Baer—the Sophomore class was kept busy by sponsoring a car wash, April 28, 1979. This was done to raise funds for the prom they will give as juniors.

A special committee composed of sophomores and juniors met on several different occasions and selected the style for the first SDHS class rings. Representing the sophomores on Student Council were Ronnie Amm, Mark Graver, Tim Hofstetter, Merrill Hutchinson, Margo Smith and Greg Ullrich.

No, Andy, you're supposed to march with your drum, not through it!

Donald Duck looks at Kim and Robin as if to say, "Why can't I have legs like that?"

Ron had a little trouble reading the sign, so he borrowed some glasses to see it better.

At lunch, some sophomores would rather "shoot the breeze" than "bite the dust"!

As the freshmen entered S.D.H.S. this year, they gave up their leadership of junior high, and became the bottom rung of the ladder. When this class graduates in 1982, they will have been the first class ever to attend S.D.H.S. for all four years.

The officers of the class were: President—Geoff Miller, Vice President—Gary Schuler, Secretary—Diane Nelson, Treasurer—Rick Kinnett.

Student council members were Marty Ickenroth, Wendy Wesemann, Paula Jackson, Joanie Vinup, and Spencer Spaulding.

WHAT

Sports ... pg. 58

We were three—but now we are one. In the past, we fought each other battle after battle, game after game. The rivalry is over. We are no longer Devils, Bulldogs, or Bobcats—We are KNIGHTS—We unite and cheer together, fight together, win together—for our New Identities.

Classes ... pg. 88

Academics are often overlooked in a school with a good athletic program because athletics bring money to the school while classes merely combat illiteracy. Here at South Dearborn, classes do continue on a daily basis. Learning is the key to the future and that's what this section is all about ... learning.

A feeling of belonging, a pride in what one contributes is the basis of the many clubs at SDHS. Students get the opportunity to expand ideas past regular classroom work—to learn, to grow, to mature—into New Identities.

What went on this year? In this division of Knight Life, we're going to show you. The Prom, a Christmas Dance, the first Annual Turkey Bowl and the unforgettable Variety Show (to name a few) added excitement to this year—our first year at South Dearborn.

"This 'Knight Pride' idea is great because winning takes pride, not talent alone."

Fighting their way to an 8-2 season, South Dearborn's Knights showed what "Knight Pride" is all about. The mighty Knights had four consecutive victories against conference opponents this year. Head Coach Foster Harris said, "We had an outstanding senior group this year, the most talented team I've coached." This year's squad was offensively led by senior quarterback Chris Brady. "I believe Chris has the potential to be a good college football player; he has tremendous size," stated Harris. Jeff Henke was the team's leading rusher sporting an average of 755 yards (conference only). Henke was awarded conference title. Senior Randy Marker led the Knights with most receptions and Dave Kitchell led the defense in tackles. "When kids from other schools can get together as this bunch did I think its great. Tremendous effort!" When asked about the future of football at South Dearborn coach Harris said "I see a great future ahead, We'll get more people each year. We won every game this year except one so we established something to live up to. This "Knight Pride" idea is great because winning takes pride, not talent alone."

Even though the freshman Knights didn't have a perfect season, they gained valuable experience on the field. This year the team suffered from a lack of participation at the ninth grade level. Coach Gary Hall expressed his concern, "If more students would become involved with the football program, it would improve greatly. Students from all the different Jr. Highs need to combine to form the best possible team."

For the 1978-79 school year, the Most Improved freshman player was Jack Teaney. The Best Offensive player was Geoff Miller.

K-N-I-G-H-T-S! "What's that spell?" Devils, louder, Bobcats, louder, Bulldogs! "Oh, I mean Knights." If you witnessed one of the first events where the cheerleaders performed, you may have heard many mistakes of this type. The S.D. cheerleaders were one of the first groups to pull together and work as one. The Aurora Farmer's Fair was where they actually discovered that all their hours of hard work paid off.

As the announcer of the cheerleading contest proclaimed the S.D. squad the winner, the feelings of joy, and relief ran through the minds of the S.D.H.S. students.

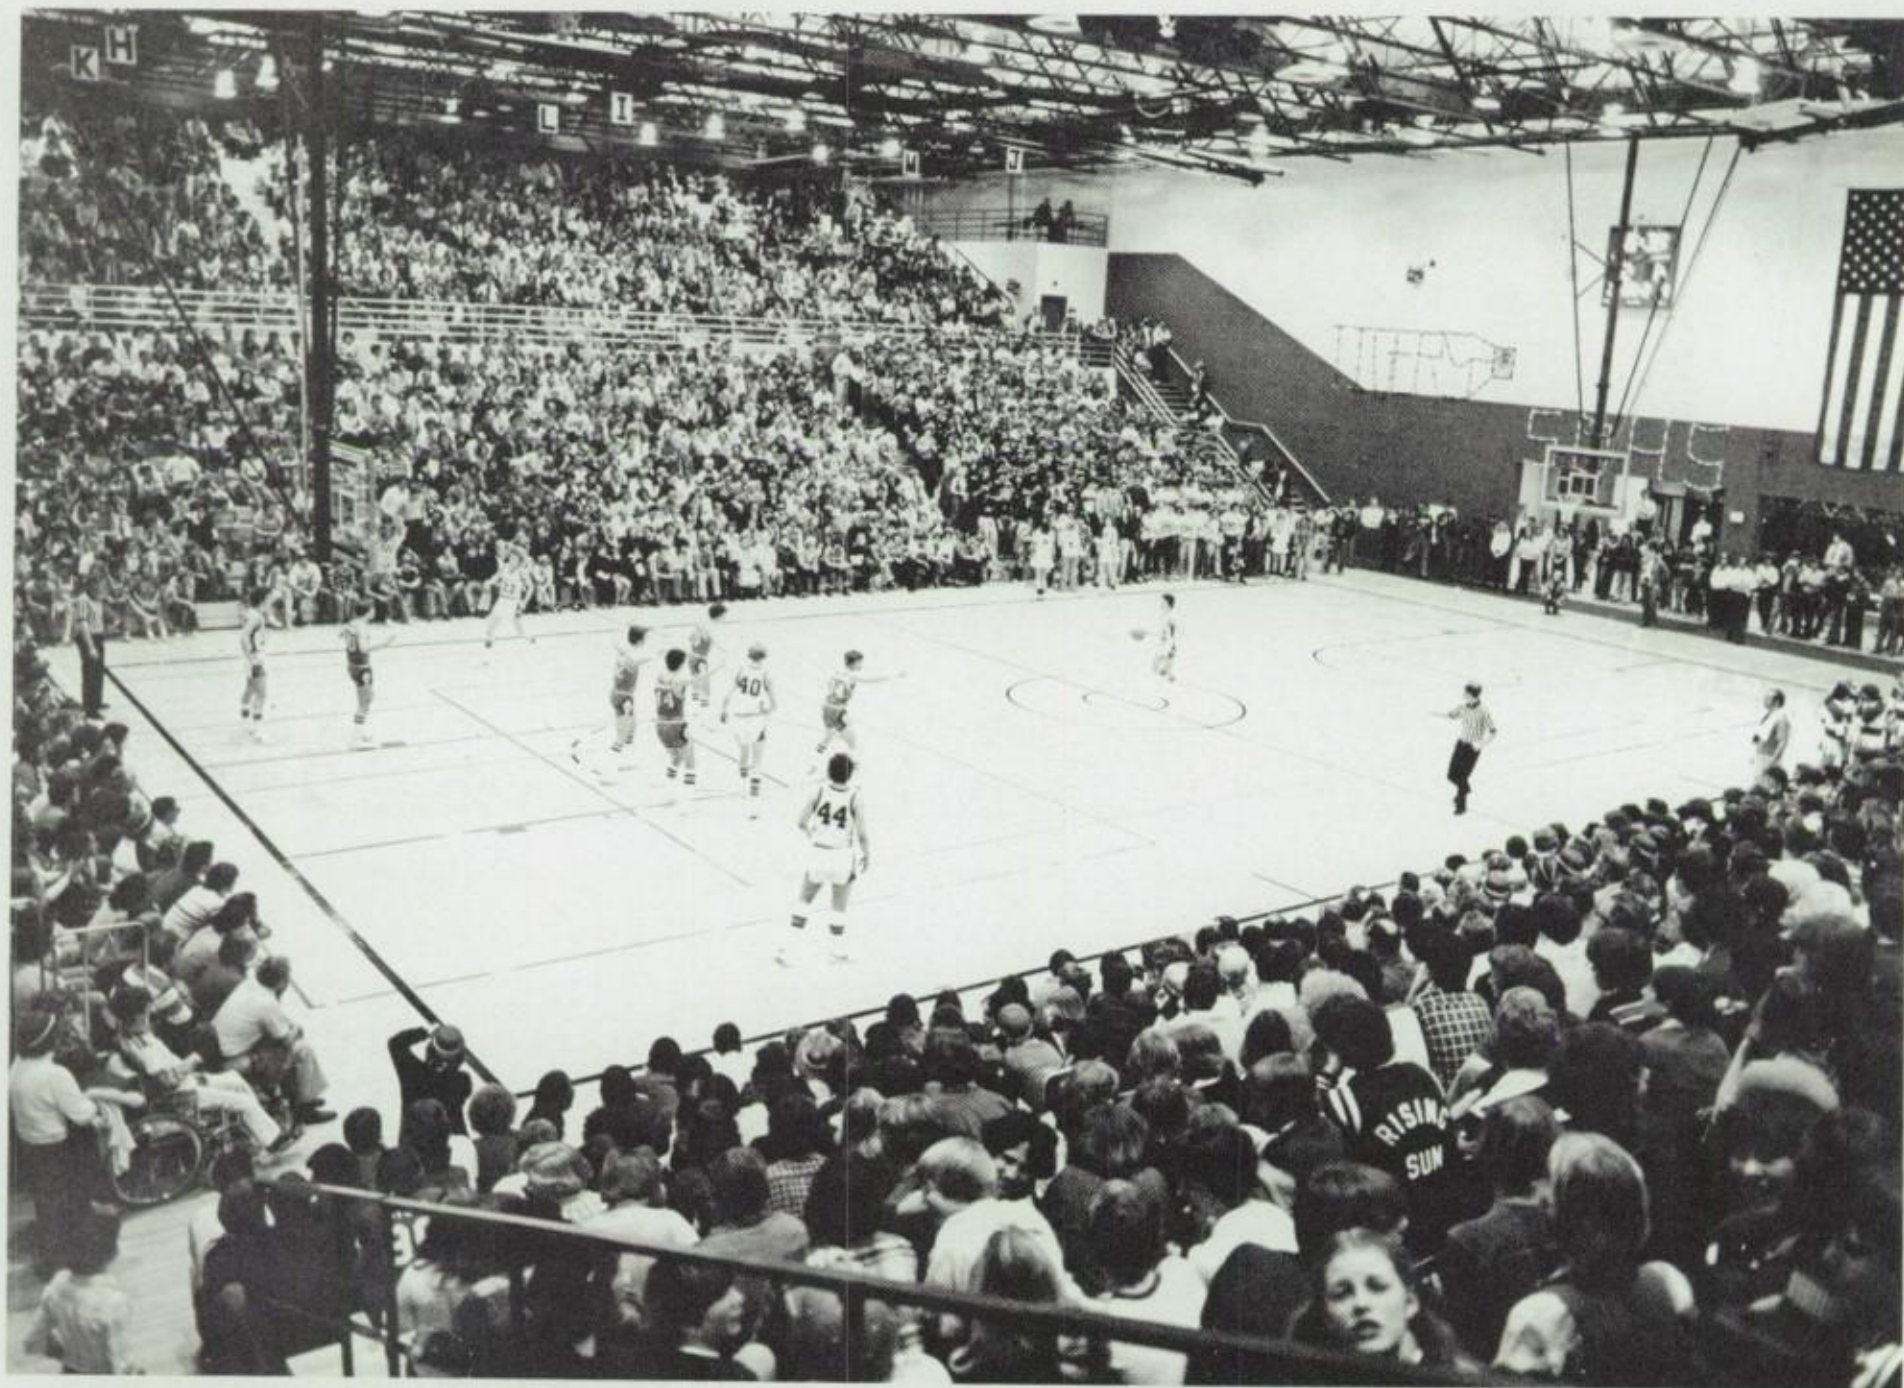

From the time football started to the end of basketball season these girls tried a most difficult task—to consolidate the spirit from three schools into the famous "Knight Pride."

As far as the cheerleaders from S.D. go, their year could best be described like this: "Go big red, go big blue. We've combined and you'll find we are ready for you"....and they were.

Reserve cheerleaders, Front row: Kim Fehling, (Captain), Second row; Kim Wendlemen, Sharon Luke, Lisa Cradler, Phyllis Banks, Debbie Glenn. Third row: Teresa Wynn, Top: Lisa Lows.

“We, the Knights, are Tough and Mighty,
 Our team will keep on Fighting, and When they’re down we’re still behind them all the way, Go! Fight! Win!
 We aren’t intimidated—at the top is where we’re rated—shielded by armor we are ready night or day!”

“Being Ripley County Champs and conference co-champs were two goals we set and reached,” proclaimed Mr. Bob Finnegan, South Dearborn High School Varsity Basketball Coach. When asked how he felt about the season in general he stated, “This year was really a learning experience for all of us. Everything was new and somewhat different than what I had been used to in the past. In our first season I feel we did better than I had anticipated. Going 17-3 in the regular season really pleased me. Our 3 losses were to powerful teams.” This year’s sectional loss to Lawrenceburg was really a letdown to Coach Finnegan, “the sectional loss really depressed me, as it did our players and fans. We had proven all year that we were the best team in the area and I thought we should have won. As coach I must shoulder the blame for our losing and will do my best to see it doesn’t happen again.” The Knight cagers had some outstanding shooters this year. Shooting was the team’s most valuable asset. The team lacked speed so they played more zone defense.

Coach Finnegan felt that student support was sufficient. He hopes the student morale will pick up in the future as students put their old school loyalties behind them.

Coach Finnegan has a positive outlook on the upcoming season, “It’s going to be hard to match this year’s record, but we should have another outstanding team. I anticipate a stronger schedule, having dropped some of the weaker teams, making for stiffer competition. With a lot of hard work and dedication we should achieve a great deal of success next year!”

Like the majority of all sports this year, getting started for the reserves was a slow process. It meant long practices to see what kind of talent was available. The team was off to a dragging start, but ended up playing very good ball during the middle of the season.

Reserve Coach Wayne Showalter anticipated a better season. "Our team was very capable of good ball all year instead of just half the time," he stated. Defense was led by junior guard, Mike Givan, who showed an impressive record.

Coach Showalter is looking forward to next year saying, "Freshmen have some great talent and I feel we may surprise some people."

Hey guys, you're playing on the same team, remember?

Ready to sink two more for the Mighty Knights.

"The Freshmen had two teams this year, A and B, which enabled more boys to learn and participate." As coach of the A team, Dennis Dilts, stated these words, a look of satisfaction came over his face. "We were very proud of them." This year there was reason to be proud of our freshmen, as the A team came off with an 8-6 record, the B team finished with a record of 5-4.

As freshmen athletes just starting their careers in high school basketball, the boys did a great job and more importantly, they learned, progressed, and had a good time. After all, as the old saying goes, "It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game."

The 1978-79 Boy's Track team was one of the largest sports teams at South Dearborn.

There was extensive participation from all classes—Freshmen through Seniors.

With a 9-3 season record, the Boy's Track team made its mark in the annals of S.D.H.S. sports history. The boys, under the leadership of Mr. Pat Widolff, worked hard and faced each meet with determination and pride.

Awards went to Tim Dudgeon, Most Valuable Runner; Bill Lewis, Most Valuable Field Events and Mark McCracken, Most Improved.

These boys look "hot-to-trot"!

Golf Teams Tee Off

The Girls' Golf season began August 31st and ended with the Sectional October 3rd. Because of weather the team was able to compete in only three meets which were:

August 31—South Dearborn—Brookville—Lawrenceburg—Home—First—Brookville, Second—South Dearborn, Third—Lawrenceburg.

September 15—South Dearborn, Batesville, East Central—at Batesville—First—Batesville, Second—South Dearborn, Third—East Central

September 26—South Dearborn, Greensburg, Lawrenceburg—at Greensburg—First—Greensburg, Second—South Dearborn, Third—Lawrenceburg.

The EIAC meet was held at Batesville on September 25. South Dearborn placed third in a field of six teams. Individual honors went to Sally Bauer who placed fourth on the All Conference Team.

The girls Sectional took place at Greensburg on Oct. 3rd. South Dearborn placed seventh in a field of ten teams. Most Valuable Player was Sally Bauer. Most Improved Player was Donna Stokes. Coached by Mrs. Jean Bauer, the girls' golf team gained a lot of experience and are looking forward to bettering their season record next year.

The Boy's Golf Team participated in several meets. Not all of them were completely successful, but our boys made a good showing.

April 16—Batesville, South Dearborn, East Central, Brookville, at Brookville, First—Batesville, Second—South Dearborn, Third—East Central, Fourth—Brookville.

April 17—Batesville, East Central, South Dearborn, at Dearborn Country Club, First—Batesville, Second—East Central, Third—South Dearborn.

Tennis Is A Racquet

The 1978-79 Boys' Tennis Team was the first tennis program in the South Dearborn School System. However, the team put up some stiff competition finishing with a 5-7 season. The South Dearborn netmen placed second out of 10 at the sectional at Jennings County. The team started the season out on two courts in Aurora and finished the year with six new courts at South Dearborn. Coach Ahaus praised, "We had a determined team and the performances of our senior players were really impressive."

Most valuable player was Jack Jones and most improved was Marty Beyer. In the last match of the season, South Dearborn had a shut-out victory over Lawrenceburg, 5-0. "Overall I thought it was a good season. The players had great determination and progressed well. I believe that the South Dearborn tennis team has a very promising future."

Although the netters, coached by JoAnn Coggeshall, did not have the successful season they had hoped for, they did improve and gain experience through each match. Many of the girls had never played competition tennis, yet they enjoyed the excitement of the game, made new friends and had a lot of fun. Next years' season record is bound to be better, due to the return of all of the Varsity members except one. The 1978-79 Most Valuable trophy went to Renee Fessler who played number one singles at the sectional and throughout most of the season. Most Improved went to Reni Thorpe who did an outstanding job in the position of number two singles.

The first edition of the South Dearborn Lady Knights Basketball Team started out at a very slow pace. After losing several of their first games, they made a comeback by clobbering Batesville 56-37 and beating Greensburg 46-32. Five of the Knight's nine losses were by margins of five points or less. Speaking of the season Coach Merrill had this to say, "The girls never gave up. They just kept working and striving for victories."

The Lady Knights went into the first game of the sectional playing Brookville. After the victory they advanced into the final game where they ended up on the short end against Lawrenceburg. Coach Merrill says that the girls have improved considerably throughout the season, and that they have excellent spirit. Coach Merrill will lose three girls through graduation, but will have nine of her varsity members returning. She is looking for a very good season in 79-80.

Little Lady Knights

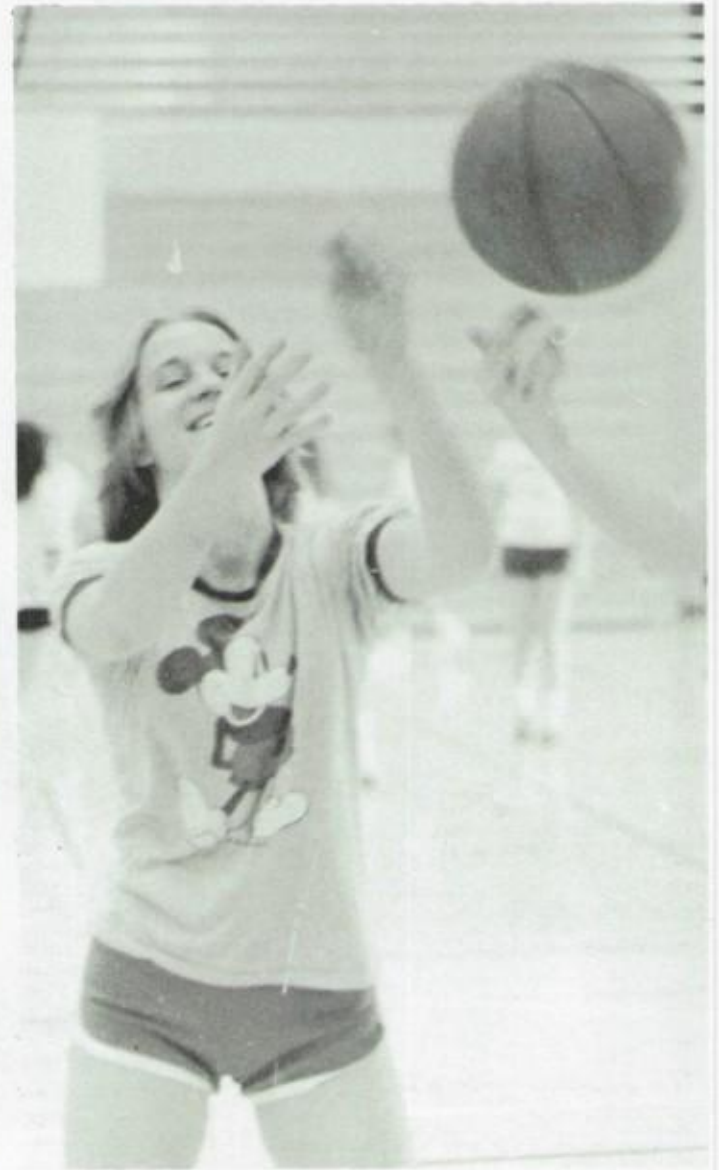

The reserve girls basketball team finished their season with a 6-6 record. Coach Lloyd Nowlin had this to say about the year, "Certainly it was not as good a record as we had hoped, but all things considered, our girls did a pretty good job. We never lacked hustle, perseverance or the zeal to succeed, even though in most contests we lacked the height and in many cases the weight to be strong on the boards.

The girls worked hard on technique and fundamentals which gave us the edge in many cases—or at least made us competitive and kept our losses close. We are really proud of the reserves and wish each the best of luck next year in varsity competition."

The reserve team only presented one trophy at the end of the year. It was a free throw trophy and the recipient was Stacy Craig.

Another Monday afternoon practice for the girl's reserve team.

The Freshman girls, coached by Chuck Rice and Leona Perry, finished with a season record of 3-3. The B-team (only playing two games) was defeated both times. The A-team, after losing twice to Madison and once to Taylor, had a great comeback by beating Lawrenceburg 45-31.

This got the little Knights going because the next week they whopped Brookville by 22 points. This was followed by a disappointing loss to Madison.

The team ended the season by beating Lawrenceburg once again by the margin of 29-18. The girls then entered into the Lawrenceburg tourney where they took a hard loss to Madison with a 27-30 score.

The members of the Freshman team were Sandy Sams, Kim Montgomery, Paula Jackson, Dee McIntosh, Wendy Wesemann, Patricia Stephens, Diane Hofstetter, Donna Vaughn, Reni Cuneo, Carol Strasmeier, Angie Lamkin, Wrenata Miller, Penny Akes, Andrea Hoffenbride, Gina Grace, Amy Engler, Donna Caseltine, Peggy Lattire.

With a 19-34 meet record, one won't find many members of the 1979 SDHS Cross-Country team running away and hiding their faces in shame over this first year's performance. The Knight runners, under Coach Bill Clifton, entered the fall season confident of winning. The Red, White and Blue had their problems, but steadily improved and by the time they hit the Richmond Sectional they came off with an impressive 14th spot out of 25 teams.

In meet competition from the beginning to the end of the season, each of the letter winners lowered his time over the 2½ mile course between 1:08 to over 3 minutes.

Gary Givan was awarded the Most Outstanding Runner trophy. He was also All-Conference and elected captain of the team. Jim Kinne was awarded the Most Improved Runner Trophy.

And Strength

In it's first year of existence, the South Dearborn Girl's Track team posted an impressive season record. Coach Merrill had ten girls qualify for Sectional competition. They were Stacy Craig, Lori Lischkge, Sue Schuler, Lisa Cradler, Lou Hopping, Paula Jackson, Susie Miller, Jean Fuchs, Jan Reamer and Kim Montgomery.

Girl's Track awards went to Stacy Craig, Most Valuable Field Events; Paula Jackson, Most Improved; and Lou Ann Hopping, Most Valuable Runner.

Volleyball Spikes Sports Interest

No applause please, just throw money!!

Girls' sports don't always receive the recognition that they should. Coach, Pam Merrill, is working on developing the volleyball team to it's fullest potential so that it can boast a record which demands acclaim.

The 1979 Girl's Volleyball Team had a fair season, but should be a contender next season as they return with Susan Schuler, Debbie Havlin, and Jan Reamer, who will be seniors. Also aiding the spikers will be CeCe Bruner and Stacy Craig. The team hopes for a good 1979-80 season.

Although wrestling is one of the oldest sports known to man, it was new this year to South Dearborn. Wrestling is basically a test of strength, quickness and stamina—and a good wrestler must know how to use a variety of holds.

Through weeks of strenuous pre-season conditioning, the Knights pioneer grapplers gained the needed qualities to achieve a successful season.

Coach John Johnson was pleased with the team's record, "Having only one individual with any previous experience, the Knights posted a respectable 5-6 record, having wrestled against both reserve and varsity squads."

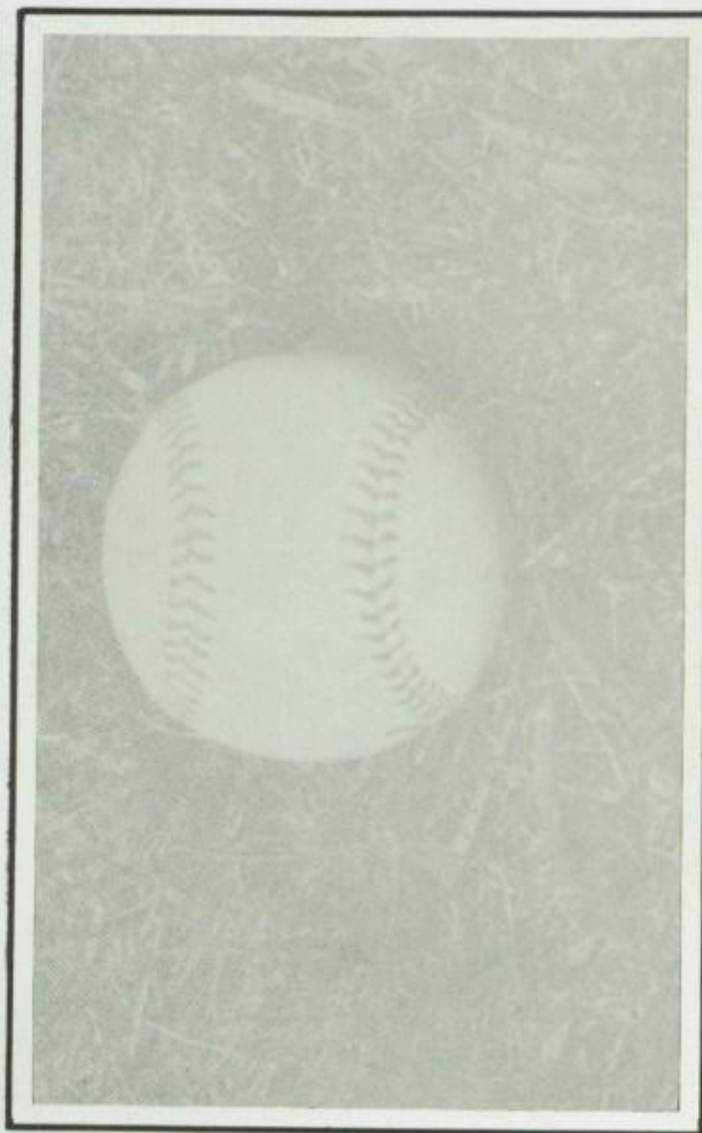

Qualifying second in the Sectional allowed junior Richard Zielinski to represent SDHS at the Regional in Seymour.

KNIGHTS WIN EIAC TITLE

Knight Pride churns up some dust in a Knight Slide.

It was a bad day at Black Rock for the Lawrenceburg Tigers. On Thursday, May 24, 1979, on a drizzly, windy day, the newly formed South Dearborn baseball team clinched the Eastern Indiana Athletic title by walloping the veteran Lawrenceburg team with a 9-3 win.

In the Knights' last game of the regular season, the winning pitcher, Knight ace Chris Brady, allowed only two earned runs on four hits by the Tigers.

"I think we won because we played as a team and worked real well together," stated Coach Larry Hornbach.

And they worked well together all year. The Knights were unbeatable for their first 17 games, then fell to the Brookville Greyhounds by one point, 10-9. The season ended with a disappointing (and surprising) loss to East Central, 8-7, in the Sectional.

All in all, for a first year team the Knights had an exceptional season. Three team members were voted All-Conference: Chris Brady, pitcher; Kevin Conran, Outfield; and Doug Mills, Outfield.

"It's just been one heck of a nice season. We lost a few that we probably should've won, but we won a few we should've lost, too," Coach Hornbach said. "I'm just very pleased for the kids. We've got some great players here."

It's not whether you win or lose a meet, what matters is if your time improves. If this is the case, South Dearborn's first swim teams, both boy's and girl's, were successful. There were few wins this year but all of the swimmers improved their times and some even got faster at every meet. When the sectional rolled around, both the boy's and girl's relays qualified, as did the two most outstanding swimmers, Terry Tandy and Guy Frable. The most improved swimmers this year were Diane Nelson and Jeff Baer and the awards of "Best Mental Attitude" went to Lisa Kitchell and Rob Landley. Both teams together only lost four members to graduation and coaches Cahill and Miller are looking forward to very successful teams next year.

What? Boys in Home Ec Class? That's right. Home Ec. is no longer a "Girls Only" class. With its diversified course offerings, the Home Ec. Department has something for everyone.

Home Ec. includes courses in Foods, Textiles and even a class in "Family Living," exploring the family unit and how it functions. Classes planned and carried out a traditional wedding ceremony including every detail from the "I do" to the reception afterward.

Now, if the Home Ec. and government areas would combine next year, the course could be really authentic with a unit in "Divorce Court."

This year a myriad of courses in Social studies were available at South Dearborn. For the first time, Freshmen could take Citizenship-Geography and Sophomores could study World History or World Geography. Juniors' had these same choices plus Humanities which combined History with Language Arts. Seniors had twenty-five nine-week mini-courses from which to choose. A few of these mini courses were "Crime and Juvenile Delinquency", "Politics", and "Behind the Headlines".

Communication is the Wie gehts? Muy bien, gracias.

Language Arts, the largest department at South Dearborn High School, helps the student develop his communications skills; not only in English, but in other languages as well. Along with English, the department offers elective courses in Spanish and German.

Every student at SDHS is involved with the Language Arts department, as three years of English and Literature are required for graduation. Therefore, it is essential that this department be strong and effective. Unfortunately, this year Language Arts was plagued by too few teachers and overcrowded classrooms. The "open" concept was to be severely tested in this situation with many English class enrollments numbering in the forties—and no walls with which to contain those classes. Because of the large classes sizes, students might not have received as much individual attention as they would have at the three former schools.

Among the modern facilities utilized by the Language Arts department was a multi-thousand dollar language lab. Unfortunately (same as above) for a large part of the first semester, the school could not afford or locate the tapes ordered to use with the machine.

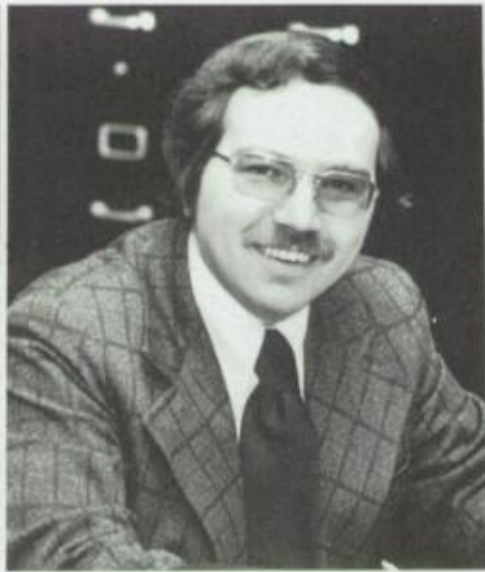

Despite these limitations, the Language Arts teachers did their best to peddle pronouns, participles and punctuation to their populous pupils.

Because of the overcrowded classrooms, it's a good thing there's a lot of floor space in the school as shown by freshman, Gary Hyatt and his fellow classmates.

One of the most outstanding features of the new South Dearborn High School building is the Learning Materials Center or LMC. This facility takes the place of the traditional school library.

"The advantages of this library over the other libraries are that it is more accessible to the students, it possesses more books, titles, and audio-visuals," stated Mrs. JoAnn Coggeshall, chief librarian of the Learning Materials Center at South Dearborn. She also said, "The L.M.C. is more attractive to the students because of the carpet on the floor. Most students enjoy sitting on the floor to read because carpet is more comfortable." Mrs. Coggeshall has two adult Media Aides, Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Wendleman, and a group of student Media Aides. The L.M.C. is available from the beginning of a school day until everyone is through with their research. There are many sources for obtaining materials in the library such as the Ready Reference, the Vertical Filing Cabinet, Readers Guide, newspapers, and audio-visuals—such as records, films, and cassettes. "The majority of the books were obtained from the former Aurora High School Library," said Mrs. Coggeshall. At the beginning of the year there was no charge on overdue books, but Mrs. Coggeshall explained. "The students were not returning the materials, so unfortunately, there had to be a five cents a day charge on overdue material." As far as goals are concerned Mrs. Coggeshall stated, "Goals for any additions of information and divisions, in the near future, are, closed circuit television, student radio broadcasts, and more reference materials. Another goal is to have at least twenty book titles per student in the references."

Some SDHS students get a headstart on their future jobs by opting for the educational programs offered through the Southeastern Indiana Vocational School (SIVS). Most students attending SIVS take required academic courses at South Dearborn and then travel by bus to their classes at Versailles.

The SIVS is an excellent alternative for students who are interested in vocational training rather than college-related fields.

As these words were announced several times this year, in parades and halftime shows, standing ovations and thunderous applause went up everywhere.

Opening night butterflies and closing night relief were two of the most prevalent emotions of the Performing Arts students.

Outstanding performances made the first year at South Dearborn a very memorable one in the Fine Arts Department.

In the fall of the year, three one-act comedies were presented—"Why I'm A Batchelor," "The Man In The Bowler Hat," and "Final Dress Rehearsal." The spring brought the musical "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown," and the three-act play, "The Curious Savage."

Sunshine in "79"

"Sunshine on my shoulder makes me happy....":

The Sunshine Society, sponsored by Joyce Draut and Nancy Gerber, is a Society dedicated to the aid of the community.

The many members of the club visited nursing homes, attended conventions, went Christmas caroling and sold holly and carnations. They also collected money for various fund drives, and entered a float in the Farmers Fair Parade.

Leading the Sunshine Society were Pres. Lois Armbruster, VP Cecilia Jackson, Secretary Debbie Barricklow and Point Keeper Jan Powell. Serving as the Executive Council were Rae Jean Leffler, Lisa Rullman, Teresa Elder and Renee Fessler.

An Ideal Ladies Tea took place at the end of the year to honor those ladies most admired by the members.

These sunshine girls and their Ideal Ladies made the sunshine tea a great success.

FFA Members Learn To Grow

Some clubs are all work and no play. Others are all play and no work. The South Dearborn Future Farmers combine both work and social activities to make a well-rounded organization.

One of the largest clubs at South Dearborn, the FFA was extremely active during the 1978-79 school year. Some of their fund raising projects included selling citrus fruit as well as packets of flower and vegetable seeds.

The group, under the guidance of sponsor Walter Ellison, entered a float in the Farmer's Fair parade and took part in numerous other out-of-school, farm-related activities.

Future Homemakers

Homemaking is much more than the traditional duties of cooking and sewing. Homemaking is, in fact, an art in itself. The girls of South Dearborn's Future Homemakers of America organization practiced and learned about the art of homemaking during the 1978-79 school year.

Sponsored by Mrs. Lucille Schaich, the FHA group took part in many activities, among them a Christmas dinner party for the girls and their mothers. The festive mood prevailed and the holiday theme was carried out through table decorations and menu.

The FHA was one of the smaller organizations at SDHS this year, proving that it's quality, not quantity that counts.

Foreign Cultures Studied

In its first year of existence, the International Club had a membership of twenty-one. Activities included a Christmas party, a foreign food pitch-in dinner and interviews with the exchange students at South Dearborn.

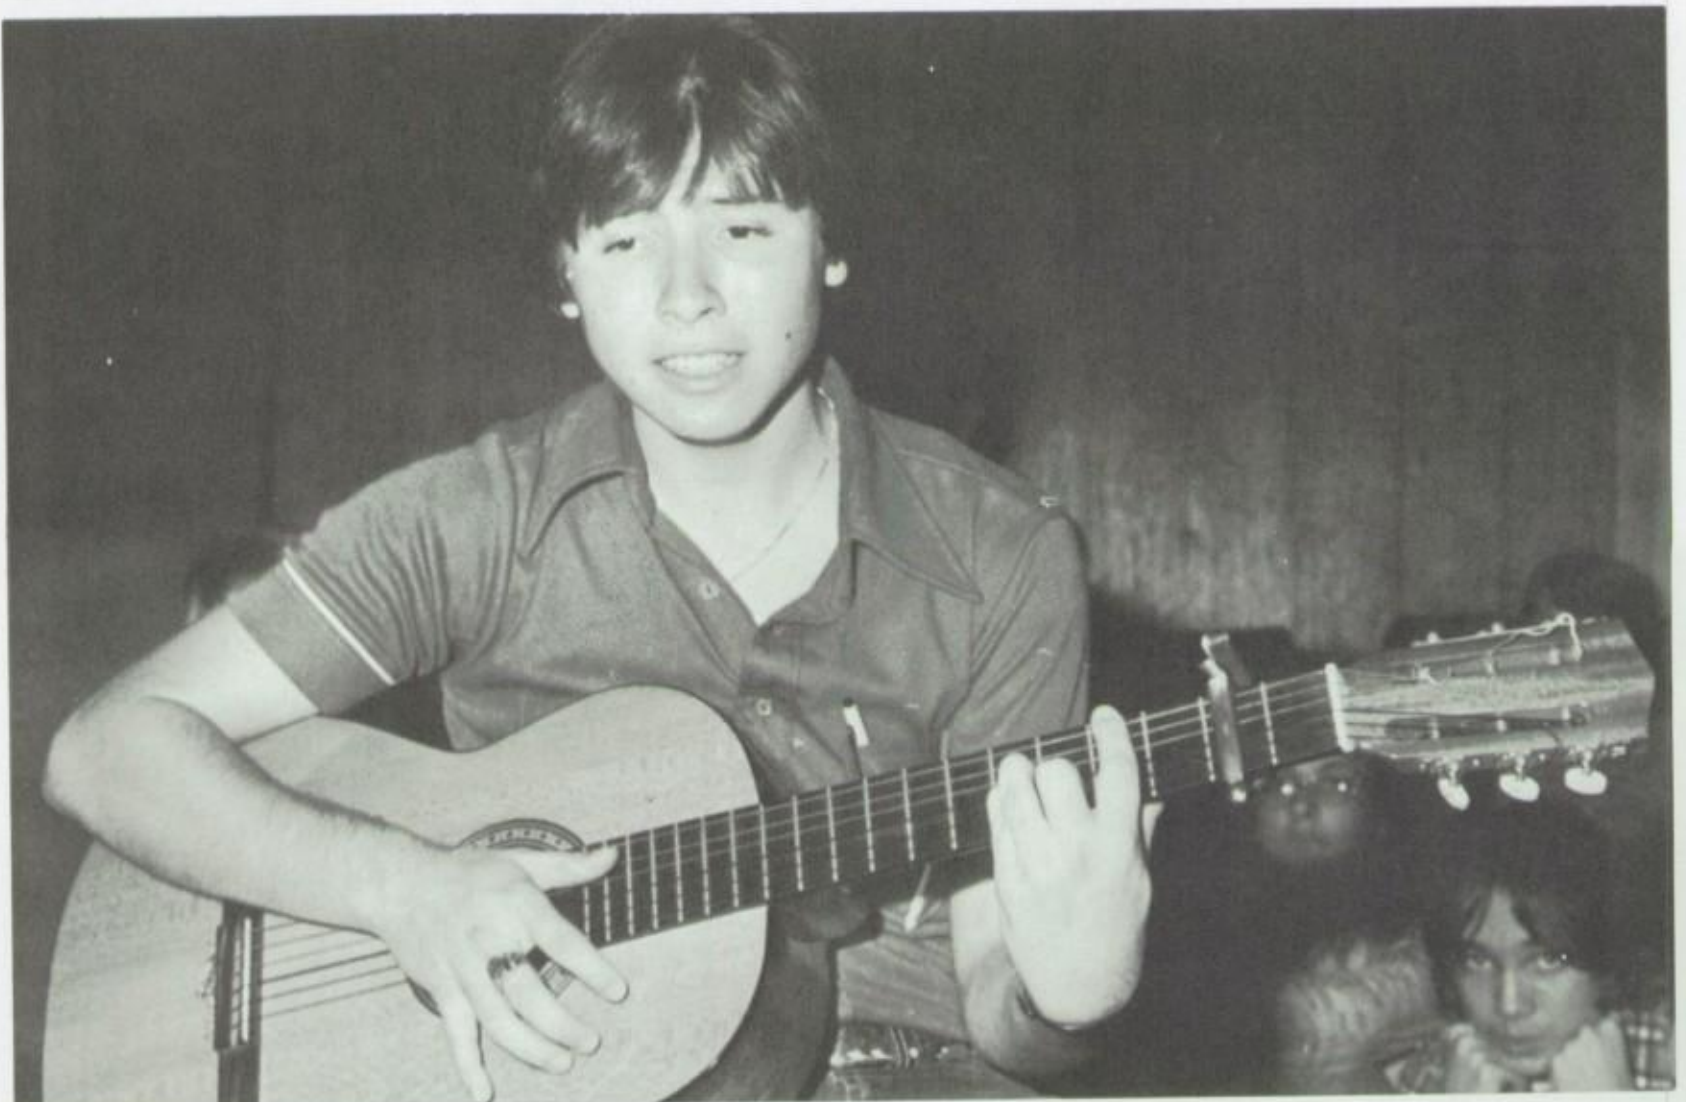

Plans for future years' activities include visiting restaurants featuring international cuisine as well as providing school showcase displays depicting life and customs in other countries.

The 1978-79 International Club officers were: President—Alison Butt; Vice-President—Julie Callahan; and Secretary—Reni Thorpe. Sponsor of the club was Miss Mary Kusel.

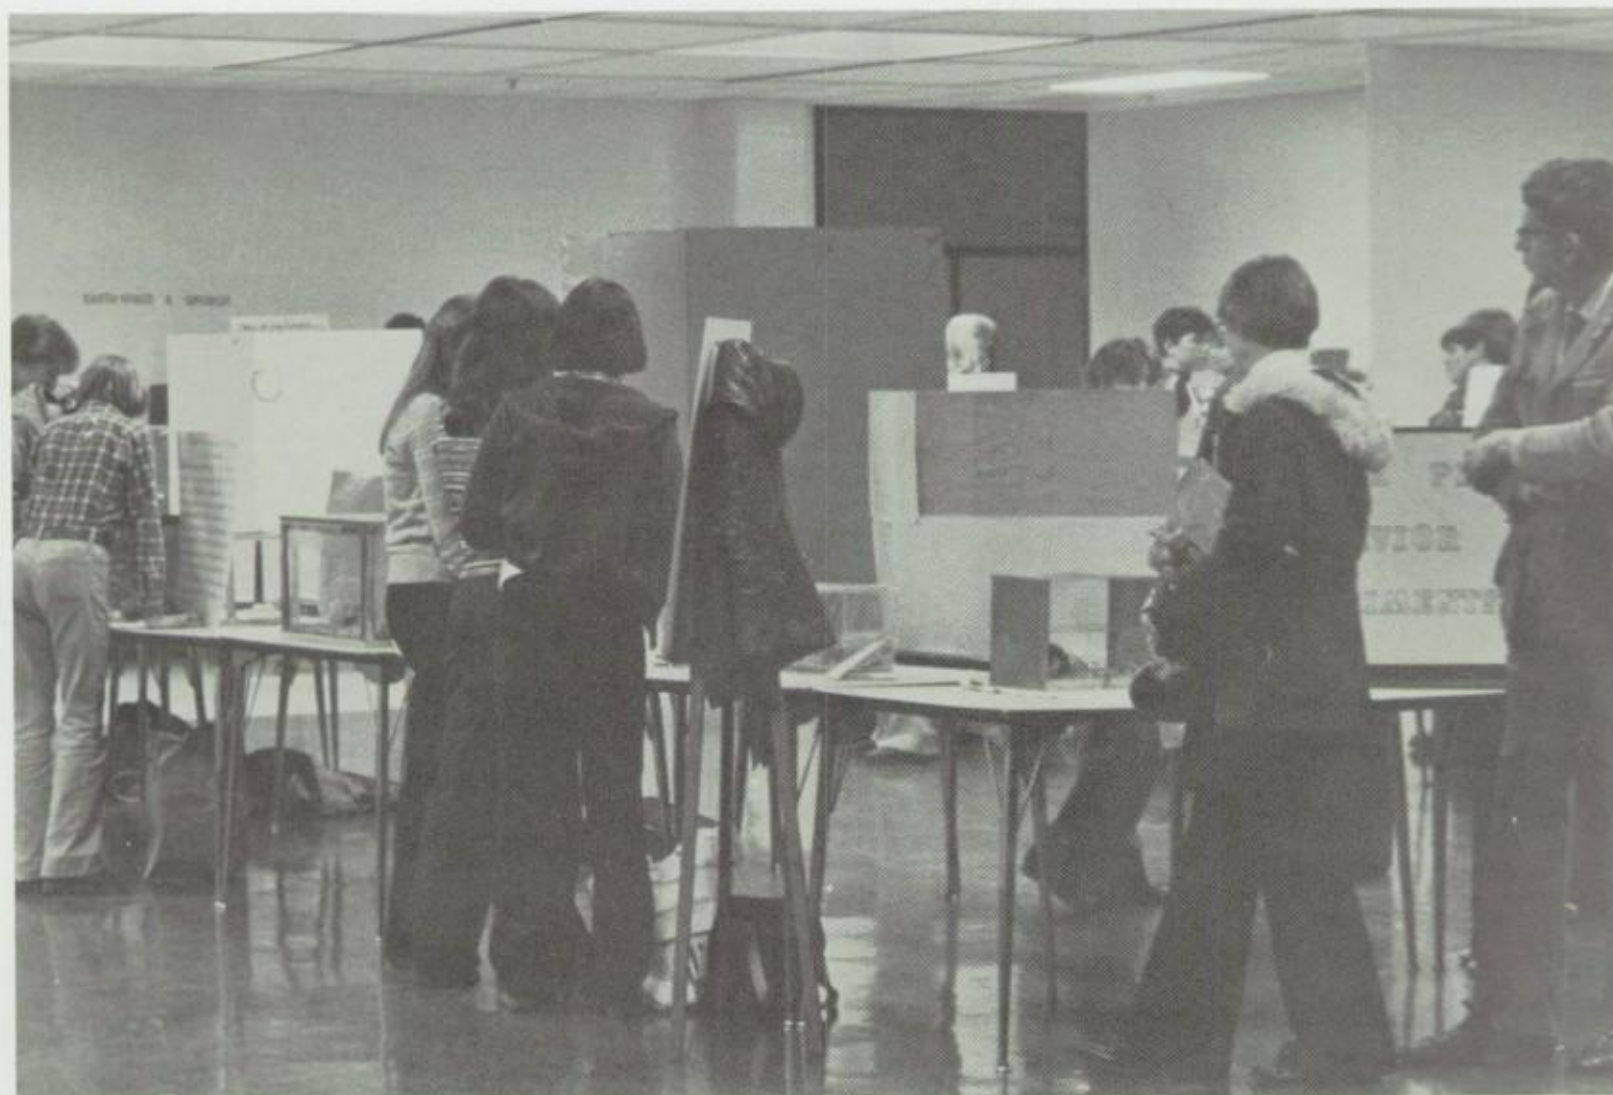

International Club was entertained at one meeting by Miguel Cantu, one of the SDHS exchange students. Above: Debbie Workman and Miss Kusel enjoy some foreign food.

S.D.H.S. Scientists Have Busy Year

Visitors enjoy viewing Science Fair displays.

South Dearborn's Student Scientists were quite busy this year. The Science Club sponsored many activities for its members. They participated in four field trips including outings to the Dearborn County Hospital, the Dillsboro Life Squad, a mink farm in Guilford, and a local veterinarian, Dr. Jacobson.

The club arranged several programs with guest speakers. Among them were Randy Block, who spoke on "Underwater Photography", Walter Cory who spoke on "Energy and Environment" and Calvin Grant, who spoke on "CPR".

Money-raising projects consisted of selling dried flower arrangements made by the students. The money was used for supplying prizes to Science Fair winners as well as providing awards for Scientific Scholars.

Extra, Extra Read All About It

The "point" of no return???

The newspaper staff, under the leadership of sponsor Wayne Showalter, produced many excellent editions of the "Knight Times" this year. To add special Christmas spirit during the holidays, they published a colorful red and green copy with fun games and puzzles. Interesting interviews highlighted many of the papers, such as "School Personalities." The staff did an excellent job informing the students about happenings in sports, clubs and other activities.

Knight Life...

"These pictures need a story... This page needs a headline... No, we're not through yet, we have to write captions... What do you mean, they won't let us in the darkroom today? We need prints!... Can anybody think of any money-making projects—we need some to replace the $300 they took away from us to put in the "Miscellaneous Fund..."

Such were the trials and tribulations of the 1979 Knight Life staff. Organizing and publishing the first yearbook for a new school is a major undertaking and the staff members (most of whom were journalistically inexperienced) worked diligently to do the best possible job.

Journalism is a subject that you can really sink your teeth into.

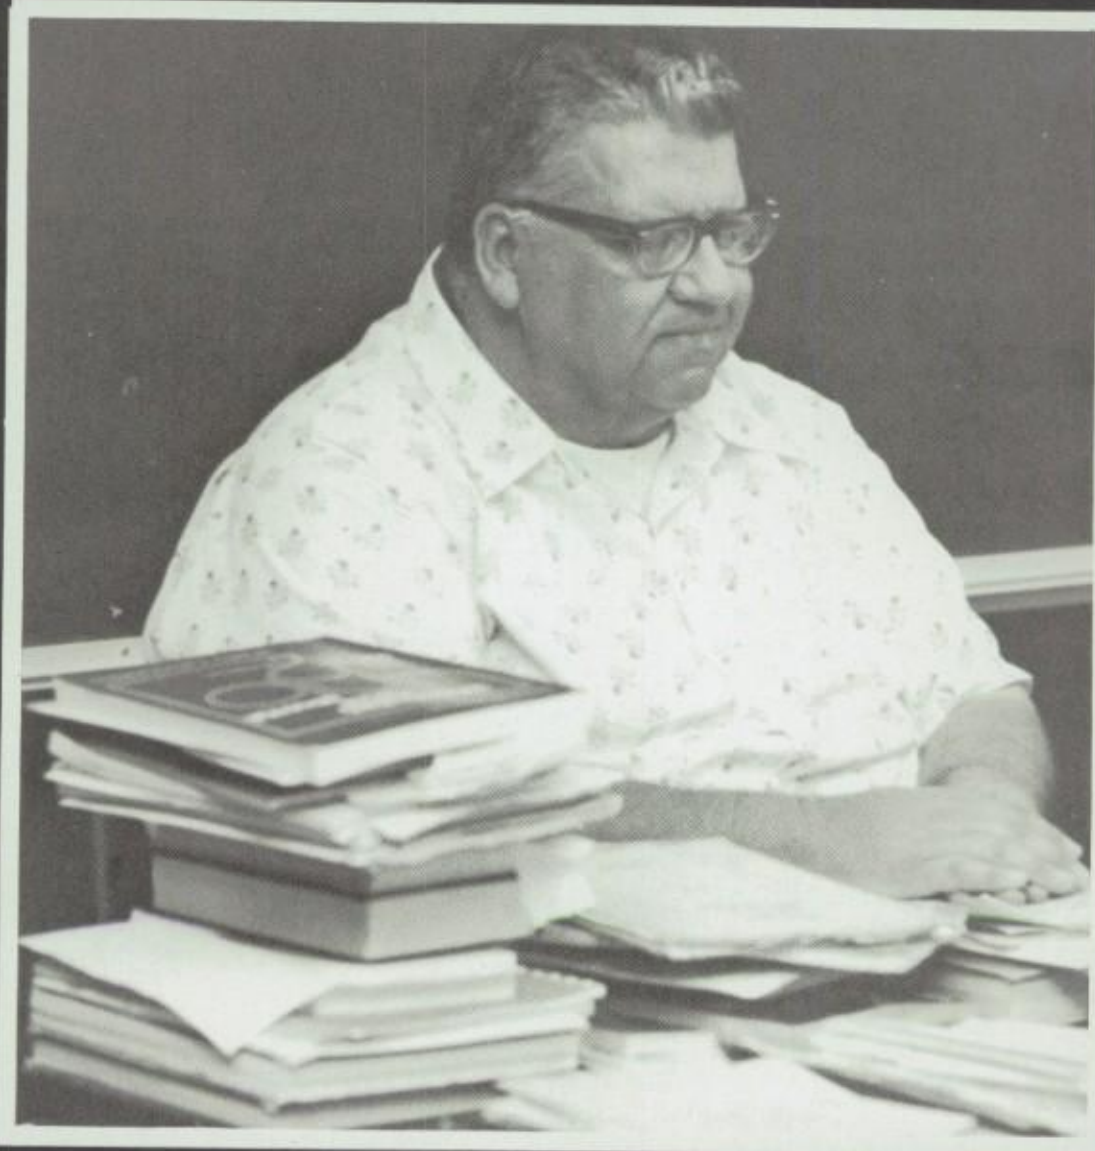

Surprise Ms. Busse!! We put this picture in the yearbook!!

Ms. Busse demonstrates the fine art of drawing a layout to four of her avid students.

In Memoriam

Ray Hudson (known affectionately as "Rock" to friends and students) was a big man.

Not only did the former Aurora and South Dearborn teacher possess a commanding physical stature, but his personality was great as well—in more than one sense of the word.

Rock was compassionate. He had a big heart. There was no student who escaped his concern. He understood students and their problems and wasn't afraid to bend the rules slightly if they needed bending for a greater good.

Rock was intelligent. He had a great mind. His classes were continually fascinated by his wealth of unusual information which he never hesitated to pass on to them. Rare was the student who left one of his classes without gaining some bit of uncommon knowledge.

Rock was the "conscience" of the Corporation, so to speak. He didn't hesitate to voice a dissenting opinion, or raise a question if he thought it necessary. His ideas touched many people—sometimes whether they realized it or not. His wit and humor pervaded countless copies of the "Aurora Borealis"—the Aurora annual that he sponsored for many years.

The death of Ray Hudson in June of 1979 caused much sorrow for the South Dearborn students, faculty, staff and community. A big sorrow. For a big man.

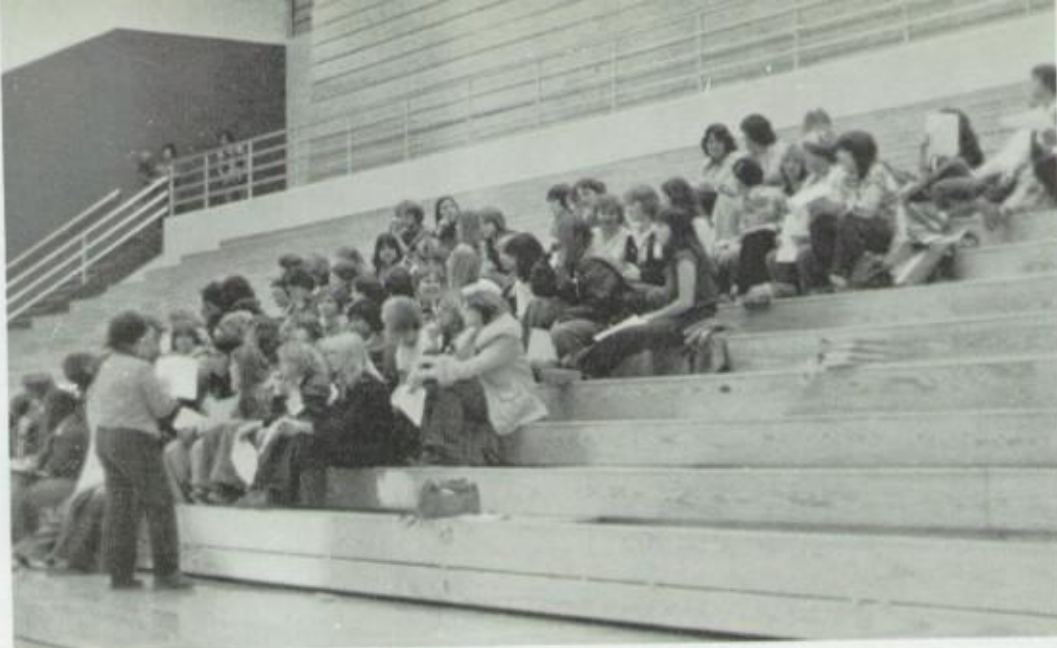

Divine Inspiration

WE will win, we WILL win, we will WIN! Cries throughout South Dearborn were heard from not only Cheerleaders, but Pep Block members, Usherettes, Pep Band and fans.

Twenty usherettes, under the direction of Mary Kusel, greeted friend and foe alike at the South Dearborn Gymnasium doors. These girls showed their spirit not only by cheering, but also through handing out programs, showing fans to their seats and holding the ropes.

The pep block, led by JoAnn Coggeshall, arrived at each game in Red, White and Blue with high spirits. Not only was the pep block ready to go at the games but also at pep sessions and whenever else the boy's morale needed a pick up. The pep block also received a lot of help from the Pep Band and Full Band directed by Dave Kling. The Band led many of the cheers and helped with team spirit each and every chance they had. With the help of these people SDHS earned the reputation of being a well behaved and peppy group.

Building Knight Spirit!

An apple a day keeps the Tigers away!

Ashes, ashes, we all fall down!

Yo, Ho, Heave, Ho

"Go Knights go," "We will win," "Knights number one," "Gonna beat those Tigers." These chants plus many more were heard throughout the gymnasium at South Dearborn High School during the few pep sessions that were scheduled to promote "Knight Spirit." Students, coaches, cheerleaders, and even the team members themselves chanted, yelled, screamed, and hollered trying to get themselves mentally ready for "the big game."

Skits, pyramids, and speeches were a few of the main attractions presented at the pep sessions this year. From the beginning of the year to the end, the "Knight Pride" had picked up considerably as everyone started taking part in the pep session activities.

S.D.H.S. First Annual Turkey Bowl

One of the Thanksgiving events held at S.D.H.S. was the Turkey Bowl, which was a football game between the senior football players and selected male members of the faculty. This year's first S.D.H.S. Turkey Bowl was a definite let down to the student body because of a defeat by the faculty with a score of 6-0. The students are already looking to next year's game to seek revenge against the faculty, the defending champs.

"It's so squeezable soft, it's irresistible."

Get him, Tony, get him!

As these pictures show, the mere changing of a few letters in "teach" (which by the way, is what these "cheerleaders" do)—makes the word "cheat".

"Twas the Knight before Christmas . . ."

Three days before Christmas and all through the gym there were people a-dancing as the lights all went dim . . .

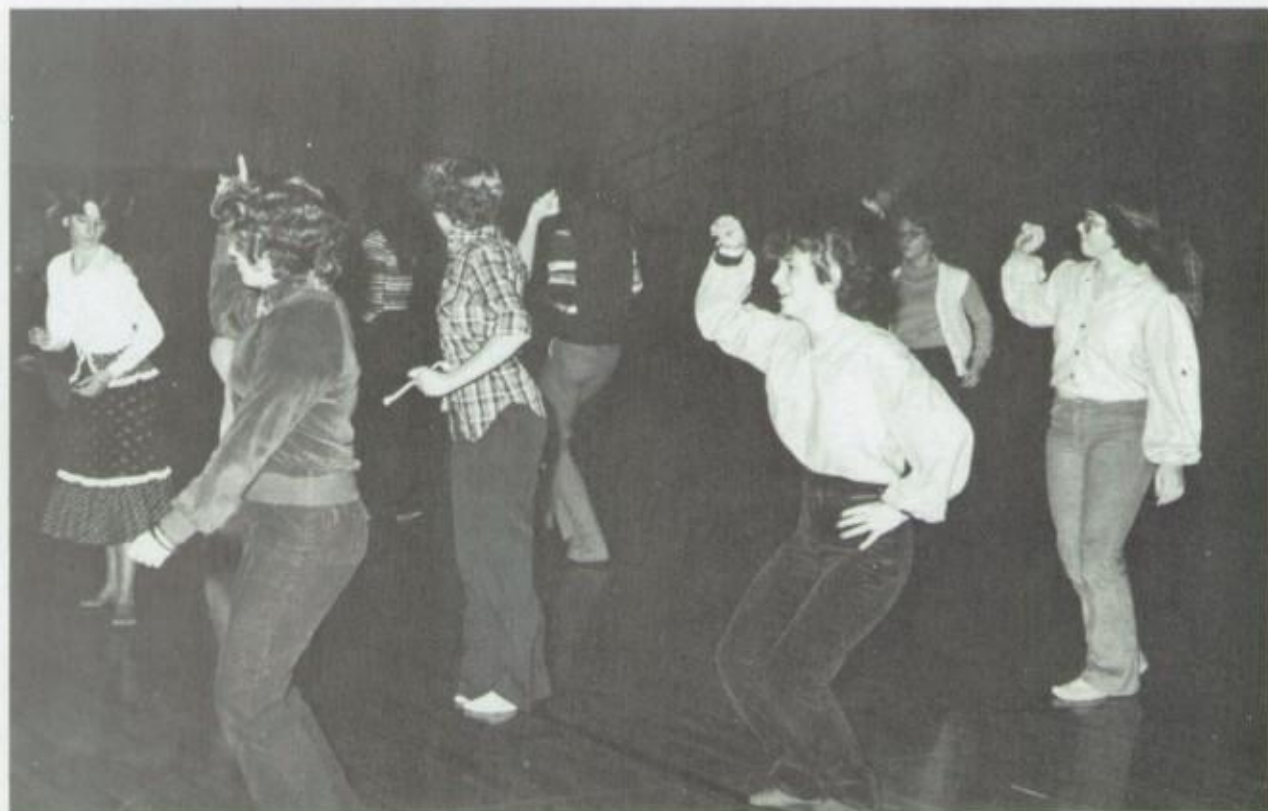

This was the scene on December 22, when the first Christmas dance was held in the gymnasium at South Dearborn High School.

The student council, organizing the dance and arranging the music, selected the group "Windfall". The group played a mixture of slow and fast rock, which kept everybody dancing throughout the night. A lighted and decorated Christmas tree accented the gym and helped to create a festive atmosphere.

"Macho, Macho Man, I'll never be, a Macho Man ..."

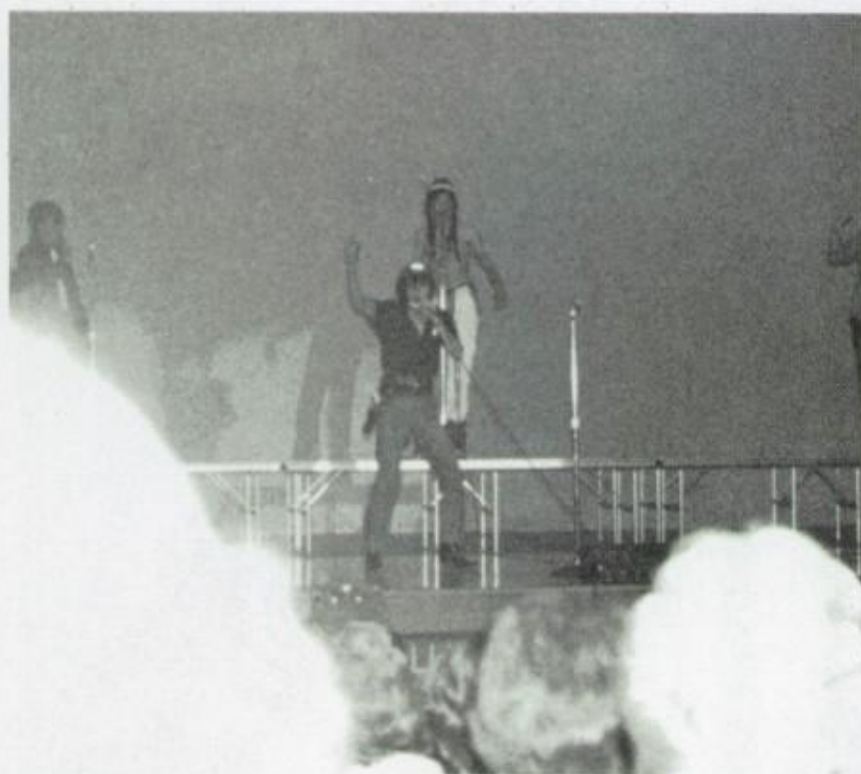

There's No Business Like Show Business

One of the most successful events this year was the Variety Show which was held May 12th in the auditorium. Many talented students performed such things as singing, dancing, twirling, instrumental music, jokes, and even a strip tease. The Variety Show couldn't have been a success if it weren't for the sponsor, Mr. David Kling. On this page we have shown you a small portion of the exceptional talent that abounds at South Dearborn.

The "amazing" Bev Farrow can even perform a flawless routine while wearing a pineapple on one foot.

Time Well Spent

I wonder if they'll let us postpone the prom for a couple of weeks, I'm sure we'll have it done by then.

We would like to give credit to those students who gave up a lot of their time to help make our prom a great success. Not only did these people work all day on streamers, dragons, and walls but they also worked well into the night. Because of this effort, we will long remember our first prom, "Knights In White Satin."

Maybe if we ALL worked we could get it done faster.

Well guys, all we have to do is get somebody to hold up these streamers.

Don't yawn yet Lois, you've got the whole night ahead of you.

First Prom Proves Successful

The winning moment

Being king has its fringe benefits.

"Yes you too can go to the ball, IM-POSSIBLE.....things are happening every-day." Many of you may have heard these words from your fairy godmothers who on May 4th sent you to the ball with a flick of their magic wands.

"Knights in White Satin" was the theme of the first South Dearborn Jr.-Sr. Prom and thanks to the Jr. class officers, Kevin Lothridge, Debbie Havlin, Cecilia Jackson, and Mark Havlin, the Jr. class sponsor, Miss Jonna Busse, and the prom committee, the prom was a success.

As you entered the gymnasium, the medievil atmosphere was evident throughout the "castle". Dancing, food, and picture taking were the main attractions until eleven p.m. when the coronation of queen, Pat Tedesco, and king, Stan Kinne took place.

After more eating, dancing, and picture taking, everyone loaded buses that went to the Lighthouse Limited in Cincinnati, Ohio for the afterprom.

As the students reached their destination the "disco sounds" were heard and everyone started to "get down and boogie."

After much excitement the after-prom came to an end and by seven o'clock a.m. it was as if the ball was over and the buses would soon turn back into pumpkins, the formal attire back into rags, your date into a rat, and yes, of course, the "castle" back into a gymnasium.

Leaders of the Class That Did It First

The tassel, the cap and gown, the Senior cords, and finally the diploma. Graduation Day—one of the biggest and most memorable days in a person's life, over in less than two hours, in a day set aside that will be remembered for years to come.

On May 20th, 1979, at approximately 3:35 p.m., these words, "You are now graduates from South Dearborn High School" were spoken by Mr. Gregory L. Platt, superintendant. As these words were stated, screams, shouts, cries, and cheers were heard throughout the gymnasium at South Dearborn. Two hundred thirty-five tassels immediately flew from "right to left" as cameras flashed, mothers cried, fathers felt proud, and graduates let out hugh sighs of relief.

If you were involved or even present at South Dearborn's first graduation, it's certain that the memory of this occasion will linger in your mind for years to come. As for those who were unable to attend, we hope to have captured in these next few pages, the memories for all to keep, and to show you that we made it!! The first to graduate from South Dearborn High School.

Daniel E. Behlmer

In any functioning organization, there is a hierarchy of power—a ladder that must be climbed to attain the positions of highest authority. There are many ways of climbing this ladder to the top. The Best Way is through experience.

Dan Behlmer reached one of the positions of highest authority within the South Dearborn Community School System—and he did so the Best Way.

With past experience not only as a teacher but as a principal as well, Mr. Behlmer gained the expertise necessary to fulfill his extremely demanding position as Assistant Superintendent—the second highest position within the system. His knowledge, fairness and dedication to his work was evident in every decision that he made—and he made many. He was a man of action. If something needed to be done, he did it—and as his associates have said of him, with Dan Behlmer, there was only one way to do things—the right way. Because of his determination to do things the right way, the community benefited as it could not have without his presence.

But, almost just as important as his decisions and actions was the positive manner in which he carried out those decisions and actions. A smile always greeted any colleague, employee, student or visitor.

This same positive attitude encompassed his steady climb of the ladder of success—the ladder that now has a missing rung where one is needed most—the steadying, solid rung—just before the top.

A Final Word From The Yearbook Staff

In closing, the "Knight Life" staff would like to take this time to say that producing this yearbook for you has been an experience that we will never forget for years to come! Many hours of hard work went into completing this book and as years go by we hope you won't just put it on a shelf—for this is the only permanent record of this memorable year that you have. Use this annual again if only to remember a face, to recall a place, to relive a game or remember a name.

We hope to have captured for you, the highlights of this year, the first year, at South Dearborn High School.

The 1979 yearbook staff would like to give a special thanks to the following people that helped make the first edition of "Knight Life" possible.

Thanks to: Mr. Bob Burring of Osborne Studios, Mr. Jack Tandy, Mr. Buck Farrow, Richard Ullrich, Joe Steuver, Jack Sutton, Mark Turner, and Ed Winegar, all for photography.

John F. Ullrich Studios for photography and Senior portraits.

Mr. Bill Krider, for photography and printing.

Mr. Jeff Hummel, for coming up with our name, "Knight Life".

Greg Esterman, Jeff Mills, Martha Gibson, and Mr. John Jones, for helping out when things got rough.

Also we would like to express much appreciation to Jonna Busse, our sponsor and friend. Without her we would probably still be working on the opening section. At this time we would like to thank her for being patient and awake when we weren't, for explaining to the yearbook company why all of our deadlines were late, and most of all for being a good teacher that was always there when we needed her.
